Publications with students

I cooperate a lot with master students at NTNU. We always try to publish the results from the master projects in international journals and conferences. In this page I collect a list of publications from this collaboration. As you can see it is not impossible at all to publish the results of your master’s thesis in an international research outlet, and that should be your goal!

